Subject: TUESDAY AFTERNOON: Campus Research Update

Dear Deans, DHs, Directors and Pls,

This is a complicated, fluid situation and we continue to assess how the Governor's Stay-at-Home directive will impact research at NSMU. A statement will be shared Thursday AM. The Thursday afternoon Town Hall will provide another opportunity to discuss.

In the meantime, continue to work from home. Minimum number of personnel needed to maintain laboratory organisms, animals and critical equipment should be on campus and at NMSU research facilities. Exercise social distancing at all times; no more than 5 people in a space at a time.

Be safe and healthy,

Luis
